The Author's Introduction

All praise to Allâh, the Almighty for His open and concealed bounties, which He bestows at all times. May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon His final Messenger, his family and companions and all those who strive in the path of Allâh until the Day of Judgment, as well as their followers who inherited their knowledge for indeed the scholars (Ulamā) are the heirs of the Prophets! May Allâh, the Almighty bless them all and their followers.

This is a concise book comprising of Hadith, which are sources of the Shariah. I have made a meticulous compilation so that the one who memorizes it will excel among his peers. It may assist the beginner and the learned person who is seeking more knowledge.

I have indicated at the end of every \underline{Hadith} the \underline{Imam} who collected it. I used the following abbreviations:

The seven Imāms refers to: Ahmad¹, Al-Bukhârî², Muslim³, Abû Dawûd⁴, At-Tirmidhî°, An-Nasâ'î° and Ibn Mājah².

I have called this book: "Bulligh al-Marâm min Adillat Al-Ahkâm" (Attainment of the Objective according to Evidence of the Legal Judgments); and I ask Allâh that what we have learnt may not be a calamity against us. May He guide us to act according to what pleases Him, the Almighty.

Agreed upon means: Ahádith accepted and agreed to by both Imáms Al-Bukhārī and Muslim.

Translator's Introduction

All praise is due to Allâh, the Lord of the Universe. We praise Him, seek His help, and ask His forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allâh from the evil of our souls, and the adverse consequences of our deeds. Whosever Allâh guides, there is none that can misguide him, and whosever It Be misguides, none can guide him.

I bear witness and testify that there is no deity that is worthy of worship except for Allâh, who is alone having no partners. I bear witness and testify that Muḥammad ﷺ is His perfect slave and Messenger.

Bullagh al-Marâm is a book, which was written by Imâm Ibn Hajar (773 H - 852 H) with the objective of compiling many of the Afhâdtth particularly related to the Afhâm (judgments) of Islâmic Sharîah, i.e. those related to worship, business transactions, laws of marriage and divorce, legal punishments etc. This illustrates the importance of this book for the Muslim reader, who is always in need to know the judgments of Sharîah related to the essential elements of his life.

Due to the importance of this book, Imām As-San'āni wrote a very good interpretation of the Aḥādīth in Bulūgh ai-Marām in his famous book 'Subul as-Salām.' Needless to say that reading the Aḥādīth on their own as they are organized in 'Bulūgh ai-Marām', may be confusing sometimes as the reader may find that some of these Aḥādīth appear to be contradictory even though they may be of the same grade of authenticity. Therefore, we made use of some of the commentary of Imām As-San'ānī, plus referring to some other books, which are relevant to the interpretation of Hadīth, in order to clarify any ambiguity that may arise. Hopefully these footnotes will make it easy for the reader to comprehend the essence of these Aḥādīth in Islāmic Sharl'ah and how they are deduced from the combination of these Aḥādīth and the relevant Our'ānie verses.

A glossary has been included to clarify the meaning of some of the terminology used throughout it. Needless to say that this terminology is specifically related to Islâmic concepts of which there is no synonym in English. For this reason they were used in Arabic Transliteration so that the non-Arabic speaking Muslim reader will become familiar with them, and hopefully such words and expressions will be adopted into everyday speech. One English word could never convey the whole concept and depth of the Arabic term.

Buligh al-Marâm was previously translated, with good effort by Dâr al-Fihr in Syria, but the language of the book required some refining plus there is a need for explanatory footnotes to help in the comprehension and understanding of the Ahâdith as mentioned earlier.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. al-Khushû'î Muḥammad al-Khushû'î, who is a scholar of Hadith and its sciences at Al-Axhar University, Faculty of 'Usât ad-Dîn', for his great help with the commentaries included in this edition and his valuable guidance throughout the whole work.

I would like to express my deep gratitude and appreciation to my editor sister Selma Cook, as she is not just a language editor, she reads with the eye and heart of a Muslim who tries to understand, analyze and comment on what she is reading. Her valuable discussions over the content of the book are always a source of inspiration for more valuable additions in explanatory footnotes and in the Hadith text itself. This is very important for editors of such specialized books that could not be edited by someone who does not have a good background in Islâmic knowledge and the interest and desire to understand what they are not familiar with.

Finally, I must say that this remains a human effort which can never achieve perfection, and any comments from the reader will be much appreciated and will be considered Insha' Allāh in coming editions. I would like to thank all who helped to publish this book. I pray that Allah, the Almighty accepts our efforts, as sincere deeds are done solely for His sake.

Indeed, any deeds performed without sincerity in Allah's cause are lost and have no value. May Allah guide and keep us all on His straight path.

⁵¹⁻ The consensus of the scholars is that touching the private parts without a barrier (clothes etc.) requires performing ablution according to the Handli school is of the opinion that it does not require ablution according to the Hadith of Tale, But the Hadith of Busrah is stronger as it was authenticated by many limiting and was narrated through different chains of narrators. So the opinion of the majority of scholars is the preferred one, as they said that the Hadith of Busrah was narrated later than the first one in Madinah and is known by a greater number of the Companions. The touching which nullifes ablution is that which is done with the palm of the hand or with the fingers, not that which is done with a nail, the back of a hand or an arm.

^{52.} This Hadith is not actually connected to the Prophet $\mathbb{H}$, but was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij on the authority of his father (one of the Successor Tabit). Therefore the scholars said that it is Hadith mursal (that in which the link between the Successor (Tabit) and the Prophet $\mathbb{H}$ is missing), and that it is a mistake to link the chain to 'A'shahh (RAA) as she did not narrate it. The scholars are of the opinion that in this case he should re-perform his Wuda' and repeat his prayer.

Ahmad said that none of the traditions related in this topic are authentic.59

87. He added (i.e. at Tabaránn). "So whoever sleeps should perform ablution." This addition was declared weak by Abû Dawid on the authority of 'Ali, but without his saying, "The leather strap is loosened." The chain of narrators for both this Hadith and the previous one, is weak.

Pray for twenty-four or twentythree nights and days and fast, and that will be sufficient for you. Do that every month as the other women become pure and menstruate. But if you are strong enough to delay the Dhuhr (noon) prayer and hasten the 'Asr (afternoon) prayer, then make Ghusl when you are purified and pray the Dhuhr and 'Asr prayers together; to delay the Maghrib (sunset) and hasten the Isha' prayer, and perform Ghusl and combine the Maghrib and the Isha' prayer together. Do so, and then wash at dawn and pray the Fajr. This is how you may pray and fast if you have the ability to do so. And he said, "That is the more preferable way to me." i.e. saying each phrase of the Adhân once, apart from the Takbir which is said twice.

^{73.} The time for performing the prayer has arrived.

⁷⁴ When the Prophet M emigrated to Madinah and built his mosquo, the number of Muslims increased, and they were no longer afraid to assemble to perform prayers in public. The Prophet M consulted his Companions about the best way to announce the prayer. Some mentioned raising a banner that everyboty could see, others suggested lighting a fire, but the Prophet M rejected the idea as this act is limited to the Magians who worshipped fire. Some also suggested using a bell or a tru-mpet like the Christians and the Jews, but this was also rejected by the Prophet M as they would be imitating them. But the Messenger of Allah M

Why don't we use a bell until Allâh tells us about the best thing to do.' He ordered a bell to be made, but 'Umar suggested that a man should stand at the door of the mosque or a high place to call to the prayer in a loud voice. The Prophet # agreed and ordered Bilál to call for the pray saving 'Come to congregational prayer," People returned home thinking shout this issue, and 'Abdullah bin Zaid saw a dream as he parrates, "I saw a man carrying a bell in his hand, I asked him: Would you sell me this bell?" The man asked, 'What do you need the bell for?' I answered, "I would call the people to prayer." The man then said, 'Shall I tell you something bettar?" I said, "Certainly.." He said, 'Say Allahu Akbar ' When he told the Prophet # about the dream, he ordered him to go to Bilal and tell him to make the call for the prayer (Adhan), for he has the best voice. 279. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet $\frac{26}{8}$ said, "When you get up for prayer, perform ablution properly and then face the Qiblah and say Takbir (Alláhu Akbar) and then recite whatever you can from the (verses of the) Qur'ân, and then bow until you repose therein! ¹⁰²(in your $ruk\hat{u}$). After that come up again until you are standing upright, and then prostrate until you repose therein, (in your prostration), then raise your head and sit and repose (remain motionless for a while), then prostrate (again) and repose in your prostration. Do that in all of your prayers." Related by the seven Imams, and the wording is Al-Bukhāris. In Mājah transmitted the following through the chain of narrators of Muslim, "and then come up again(from ruka') until you repose in your standing"

280. Ahmad and Ibn Hibbân reported on the authority of Rifâ'ah bin Râfi' a similar narration which also says, 'and then come up again(from rukû 'ountil you repose in your standing''

281. Ahmad has in one of his narrations, "Straighten your back until the bones in your spine return to their places (the spine must be upright)."

282. An-Naså¹ and Abū Dawūd reported on the authority of Kifā'ah bin Rāfī, "The prayer of anyone of you is not perfect unless he performs ablution perfectly, as Allāh Glorified be He ordered him to do. Then he should utter the Takbīr and praise Allāh, the Exalted." This narration also says, "If you know some verses from the Qur'ân then recite them, or else praise Allāh (say Alḥamdu-lillāh), say the Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) and the Taklīl (fā ilāha illallāh). ™™

283. In the narration of Abû Dawûd, "Then recite the "Mother of the Book" (al-Fâtiḥah) (i.e. the first sârah or the opening chapter of the Qu'ân) and then as much as Allâh makes easy for you (to read from the Qur'ân)."

284. In the narration of Ibn Hibbân, "Then (recite) as much as you wish."

¹⁰³ Basically, prayer is not valid unless the Fătiţân is read (in Arabic) in each Rab An, which is the consensus of the Scholars. But if the person finds difficulty in reciting it in Arabic or is dumb or illitarate, or any other acceptable excues, then he should try to say any other verse from the Qur'ân, or say it behind someone who can recite. If he still can't, then it is permissible for him to say Tabid, Tabid: and Tabil!.

285. Narrated Abû Humaid as-Sâ'idî, 'I saw the Messenger of Allâh (in his prayer), when he says the opening Takbîr (of the prayer) he would raise his hands up to his shoulder level. When he bows for Ruhû' he would place his hands on both kneesled and his back would be bent straight. When he lifted his head (from $ruk\hat{u}$) he would straighten his back until all the vertebrate took their normal positions. When he prostrated, he placed both his hands on the ground and his fingers would neither be spread nor clasped together, while his toes would be directed toward the Qiblah. When he sat in the second rak'ah (after two rak'at) he sat on his left foot and kept his right foot upright. When he sat in the last rak'ah, he would put his left foot (over the right) and put his right foot upright (over the left 107) and sit upon his posterior, neither inclining to the right or the left. When he rose his head from $ruk\hat{u}$, he would not prostrate until he stood up with his back in an erect position. When he lifted his head from prostration, he sat up (for a moment) before prostrating a second time. At the end of each two rak $\hat{a}t$, he would recite the Tahiyah (Tasha-hhud))11 and he used to sit on his left foot with his right foot upri-

291. Narrated Ibn 'Umar (RAA): 'The Messenger of Allah ' Ξ ' used to raise his hands to his shoulder level when he started his prayer, when he said Takbir (for making $ruk\hat{u}$ ') and also when he lifted his head from $ruk\hat{u}$ '." Agreed upon.

292. In the narration of Abû Humaid, reported by Abû Dawûd, "Farised his hands up to his shoulder level, and then would say Tabbir."

¹¹¹⁻ Tashahhud means the Testimony of faith (see Hadith no. 334).

^{112.} This way of sitting is called \(lq^2 \). Indim \(a_S \) \(\frac{San} \) and \(ln \) \(\frac{Subul a - Sala-an}{n} \), mentioned two types of \(lq^2 \) one in which one sits with the buttocks on the heels, and with the top of the toes and knees on the ground (as mentioned above), and this was accepted by some scholars. The second type is where one sits with his buttocks on the ground, with his palmed down and his knees drawn up and thighs erect (like the sitting of a dog) which is totally prohibitistic.

293. Muslim reported on the authority of Mālik bin al-Ḥuwairith, a narration similar to that of Ibn 'Umar, but he said, "...he raised his hands until they(the fingertips) were level with the tops of his ears (i.e. when saying Takbir).

294. Narrated Wa'il bin Hujr: "I prayed with the Prophet $\mathscr{#}$ and he placed his right hand over his left hand (and placed them) on his chest." Related by Ibn Khuzaimah.

295. Narrated 'Ubâdah bin as-Sâmit: 'The Messenger of Allâh said, 'No prayer (is accepted) for one who does not recite the Fâtiḥah (the opening chapter of the Qur'ân)." Agreed upon.

296. In a version by Ibn Hibbân and ad-Dârqutnî, "A prayer in which the Fâtihah was not recited, is not valid."

297. In another narration by 'Ubådah Ibn As-Sāmit, "Maybe you recite (Qur'ān) behind your Imām (when you are praying Jamā ah? We said, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allāh then said, "Read only the Fātihah, as the prayer of the one who does not read it, is not valid."

298. Narrated Anas Ibn Mâlik: 'The Messenger of Allâh 獨Abū Bakr and 'Umar, used to start the prayer with, 'Alḥamdu lillâhi Rabii 'Alamin' (All praise be to Allâh, Lord of the Worlds). '18 Aereed upon.

299. Anas added in the narration reported by Muslim, 'but I never heard any of them reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahm (In the name of Allâh, the Most Benificient, the Most Merciful) at the beginning of recitation or at its end."¹¹⁴

300. Anas also narrated, They would not recite reciting 'Bis-millahi -ir-Raḥman -ir-Raḥm'In the name of Allāh, the Most Benificient, the Most the Merciful) loudly." Related by Ahmad, an-Nasā'i and Ibn Khuzaimah.

301. In another version by Ibn Khuzaimah, Anas said, 'They used to recite it silently.' This explains the negation in the version of Muslim 'but I never heard any of them reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahim --ir-Rahim' Hadith no. 299.

^{113.} He means they do not say the Basmalah aloud, but read it silently before they read the Fătihoh, as is mentioned in the following Ahâdith (no. 300, 301).

¹¹⁴⁻ He may be referring to the end of the Fâtiḥah, as they would start reading other săras or verses from the Qur'ân, but again they would not recite the Basmalnh aloud.

307. Narrated Abû Qatâdah (RAA): 'Allâh's Messenger sused to lead us in prayer, and he would recite al-Fâtihah followed by two other Siras (i.e. a sûrah in each rak'ah) -in the first two Rak'at - of the $\underline{Dh}uhr$ and Asr prayers. Sometimes we were able to hear a verse or so (of what he was reading). 308. Narrated Abû Sa'îd al-Khudrî (RAA): 'We used to estimate how long Allāh's Messenger ﷺ stood (while reciting verses from the Qur'ân after the fâtithah') in the Dhuhr and 'Agr prayers. We estimated that he stood in the first two rak'ât of the Dhuhr prayer as long as it takes to recite "Alif Lâm Mim. The revelation of the Book(the Qur'ân).."(te. Sixah as-Sajadah, no. 32). He stood half that time in the last two rak'ât, of the Dhuhr prayer. In the first two rak'ât of the Dhuhr prayer, and in the last two rak'ât of the Dhuhr prayer, and in the last two (of the 'Agr prayer), he stood about half that time." Related by Muslim.

Rendered by an-Nasâ'i with a sound chain of narrators.

310. Narrated Jubair bin Mut'im (RAA): I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ reciting Sûrat at-Tûr (no. 52) in the Maghrib prayer.' Agreed upon.

311. Narrated Abû Hurairah (RAA): 'Allāh's Messenger 第

no. 32), and "Has there not been over man a period of time..."

say the Takbīr when he bowed (for rukū'). When he rose from rukū' he would say, "Samī'al Lāhu liman hamidah (Allāh

317. Narrated Abū Sa'īd al-Khudrī (RAA): when 'Allāh's Messenger ૠ raised his head from rukā' he would sop, 'Our Lord! All praise is Yours. (A praise that) fills the heavens and the earth, and fill what lies between them, and fills whatever else, You wish, to be filled after that. You alone are deserving of praise and majesty. This is the most truthful statement that a servant has ever said, and we are all Your slaves. O Allāh, there is no one who may withhold what You give, and there is no one, who may give what You have withheld. No fortune or prosperity(whether it be money, children, power etc) will save or benefit its owner with You (it is only Your mercy and virtue that benefits anyone). Related by Muslim.

318. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās (RAA): 'The Messenger of Allāh 獨said, "I was commanded to prostrate on seven bones (bodily parts): the forehead" -and he pointed to his nose, ²²⁰ hands, knees and the ends of the feet (the toes).' 'Agreed upon.

319. Narrated Ibn Buhainah (RAA), 'Whenever the Messenger of Allah used to pray, he would keep his arms away from his sides (when he prostrated), so that the whiteness of his armpits was visible." Agreed upon.

320. Narrated al-Barâ' bin 'Âzib (RAA): 'The Messenger of Allâh g said, "Whenever you prostrate, place the palms of your hands (on the ground), and raise your elbows." Related by Muslim.

^{120.} Imám al-Qurplö said, 'This shows that the forehead is the main part on which the face prestructe, and the nose is associated with it.' Bin Dagiq al-'Abd said, 'This means that the Prophot % considered the forehead and the nose as one part, otherwise, the parts of the body on which prestration is performed would have been eight.' This Haddlh is further explained by the narration of an-Nasā'i, lim Tawūs said, 'And he put his hand % on his forehead and he passed it over his nose and said, "This is one (part)."

321. Wā'il bin Ḥujr (RAA) narrated, 'Whenever the Messenger of Allâh 雲 used to bow, he would separate his fingers (with his hands pla-ced on his knees). When he prostrated, he would keep his fingers toge-ther. 'Related by Al-Ḥākim.

322. 'Åïshah (RAA) narrated, I saw the Messenger of Allâh graying while sitting cross-legged '12)Related by An-Nasâ'î and Ibn Kh-uzaimah graded it as Sahih.

323. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'Between the two prostrations, the Messenger of Allāh 'ž used to say, "O Allāh, forgive me, have mercy on me, guide me, grant me well-being, and provide for me." Related by the four Imāms except for An-Nasā'ī, and the wording is from Abo Dawúd. Al-Hākim graded it as Sabih.

324. Målik bin al-Ḥuwairith (RAA) narrated that he saw the Messenger of Allâh ૠ praying. If he was praying the odd rak at (the first or the third), he used to sit for a moment (a quick sitting after the second prostration) before he got up." Related by Al-Bukhåri.

¹²¹⁻ This was when the Prophet 氮 fell off his horse and his ankle was dislocated (Imām as-San'ānī in Subul as Salām.)

325. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh 賓 stood in humble supplication reciting the Qunūt'22 for a whole month asking Allâh to punish some of the Arab tribes, and then he stopped (making this supplication)."123 Agreed upon.

326. Ahmad and Ad-Dâraqutnī related a similar Hadith (on the authority of Anas) but with a different chain of narrators. The narration says, 'The Messenger of Allâh % kept on making Qunût during the Fair prayer until he left this world."¹²⁴

^{122.} Qunût is a special supplication made in certain prayers while standing after raising one's head from bowing. It is usually done in the Witr prayer, or in the second rak h of the Fair prayer.

^{123.} They are the tribes of Ra'l and Dhakwān. The Messenger of Allâh % sent almost 70 of his Companions (who had memorized the Qur'ân), to those tribes to teach them Islâm. There was a peace treaty between them and the Messenger of Allâh %, but they killed the seventy men. He was very sad for the loss of his Companions and spent a whole month recting this supplication. This is proof that it is permissible to make Qunût, recting the supplication aloud (in any of the five prayers) when Muslime are faced with calamities.

^{124.} What the Messenger $\mathfrak{Z}$ stopped (as mentioned in the first \(\frac{\text{Hadith}}{\text{i}}\) is his supplication asking Alfah to punish the people who killed his Companions. As for what he kept doing, most scholars ore of the opinion that what Anna meant by Quarti in this \(\text{Hadith}\) is that the \(\text{Prophet}\) \(\mathfrak{Z}\) would stand (after raising his head from \(\text{ruk}a\)) for some time making supplication and \(\text{dhith}\) iter (remembering Alfah), in the \(\text{Pair}\) prayer, until he died. Anns himself and the four \(\text{Rind}\)\(\mathfrak{Z}\), id not observe this \(\text{Quatt}\) in the \(\text{Pair}\) prayer after the death of the Prophet \(\mathfrak{Z}\) which supports the opinion of the scholars, as they would not abandon something that the Messenger of Alfah \(\mathfrak{Z}\) continued doing all his life, so that it becomes part of his \(\text{Sunath}\).

327. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would not stand for the Qunût (in prayer) unless he was supplicating for or against certain people." Ibn Khuzaimah graded it to be Sahili.

328. Sa'd bin Târiq Al-Ashja'l (RAA) narrated, 'I said to my father, "Father, you have prayed behind Allâh's Messenger 😤, Abû Bakr, 'Umar, 'Uthmân and 'All. Did they observe making Qunût in Fajr prayer?" He said, 'No son, it is something that has been innovated (i.e. a Bid'ah)." Related by the five Imâms except for Abû Dawûd.

329. Al-Hasan bin 'Alî (RAA) narrated, I said to Allâh's Messenger ‰, "Teach me some words to say when making Qunūt in the Wittr prayer. He taught me, "Oh Allâh, guide me with those whom You have guided, and strengthen me with those whom You have given strength. Take me into Your care. Bless me in what You have given me. Protect me from the evil You have ordained. Surely You have commanded and are not commanded, and none whom You have committed to Your care shall be humiliated You are Blessed, Our Lord and Exalted." Related by the five lmāms. Al-Ṭabarānī and Al-Baihaqī added, "and none whom You have taken as an enemy shall he honored." An-Nasā'ī added thr-ough another chain of narrators, "May the Peace and Blessings of Allāh, the Almighty he upon His Prophet."

330. Ibn 'Abbås narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh '\(\frac{\pi}{2}\) used to teach us a supplication to recite in the \(Qun\tilde{u}t\) of the \(Fajr\) prayer." Related by Al-Baihaqi, but with a weak chain of parrators.

331. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Prophet 第 said, "When one of you prostrates, he should not kneel down in his prayer as a camel does (i.e. put his knees down before his hands). He must put his hands first (on the ground) before he puts his knees down." Related by the three lmāms. It is stronger than the fladith narrated by Wa'il lbn Hujr.

332. Wā'il Ibn Ḥujr (RAA) narrated, 'I saw the Prophet '寒 place his knees down when he prostrated before he put his hands.' Related by the four Imāms. The reason behind the strength of the previous narration (of Abū Ḥurairah) is that it is supported by another narration on the authority of Ibn 'Umar (RAA) which was graded as Sahh by Ibn Khuzaimah. It was also related by Al-

Bukhârî but the chain of narrators is only connected to Nâfi' (RAA) and does not reach the Prophet $\mathbb{E}$ 125.

Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Prophet % prayed either Dhuhr or 'Asr prayer with us and he prayed only two rak'at and then (finished the prayer) by making the Taslîm. He got up and leaned against a piece of wood in the front part of the mosque. Abû Bakr and 'Umar (RAA) were present among the people on that day, but they did not dare to speak to the Prophet & (about the two remaining rak 'at). Some people left the mosque in a hurry and wondered, 'Has the prayer been shortened?' Among the people there was a man called Dhul Yadain 129 who said, 'O Messenger of Allah, have you forgotten or has the prayer been shortened?" The Messenger of Allâh said, "I have not forgotten and the prayer has not been shortened." Dhul Yadain then said, 'Surely you have forgotten, O Allâh's Messenger." So the Prophet # got up and prayed two (more) rak at and finished the prayer with Taslim. After that he said Takbir and prostrated the way he usually prostrated or perhaps a little longer. Next he raised his head and said the Takbîr. Then he said the Takbîr again and performed another prostration, the way he usually prostrated or perhaps a little lon-

352. In the narration of Abū Dawūd, The Prophet 雲 said (to the people in the mosque), "Is it 'true' as Dhul Yadain has just said?" The people nodded their heads confirming what he said. This narration is also in Al-Bukhāri and Muslim but with the wording, "They said "Yes" instead of "nodded their heads.

353. In another narration by Abû Dawûd on the authority of Abû Hurairah, 'and he ﷺ did not prostrate until Allâh, the Exalted, made him absolutely sure about it (that he had only prayed two rak ât).

If he had prayed five rak ût, the two prostrations would make his prayer even (i.e. with an even number of rak ût as the two prostrations are considered as one rak ût). If he had prayed four complete rak ût (when he had finished), they would be in defiance of Satam. Related by Muslim.

Prophet $\frac{\pi}{2}$ stating an exact number as a condition for the Jum'ah to be held, and that is why most scholars say that any number which is suitable for a Jam'a ah prayer is valid for the Jum'ah.

^{164.} Imâm ag-San ânt in 'Subul as Salâm' says that it is apparent that the second group completed their prayer, and prayed a second aré uh, after the Imâm made the Taslim without disconnecting their prayer. The first group did not complete their prayer until the second group had completed theirs and returned to face the enemy and guard the rest of the army, and then they would pray their second ruk ah. This is another way of performing the prayer when one is afraid, (the fear prayer) him. Then he made rukû' and we all performed rukû' after him. Then he raised his head from the rukû' and we all raised our heads from the rukû'. Next, the Prophet & went down for Suiûd (prostration) as well as the row closest to him (i.e. the front row). while the back row stood facing the enemy until the Prophet 25 and the first row had completed their prostration, after which the back row performed Sujûd and then stood. Following this, those in the back row moved to the front, while those in the front row moved to the back. The Prophet \$\mathbb{z}\$ performed the $ruk\hat{u}$ and we all performed rukû'. Then, he raised his head and we raised our heads from rukû'. Afterward, he made the Suiûd and the row that was previously in the back during the first rak ah prostrated with him while the [newl back row stood facing the enemy. When the Prophet and the [new] front row had completed their Suiûd, the [new] back row performed Sujud. Finally, the Prophet made the Taslim and we followed him in this.' Related by Ahmad, Muslim and An-Nasan

In another narration, '...then he prostrated and the first row prostrated with him. When they stood, the second row performed Sujūd...' and mentioned the same as the rest of the first Hadūth.' Finally, 'Then the Prophet $\frac{26}{3}$ made the 'Taslīm and we all made the Taslīm with him.' Related by Muslim.

504. An-Nasā'i narrated on the authority of Jābir (RAA), with a different chain of narrators that the Messenger of Allāh Æ prayed two rak ât with one group of his companions and then made the Taslim. Then he prayed another two rak ât with another group, and then made the Taslim.

505. Abû Dawûd transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Abû Bakrah.

Chapter XIV: The Prayer of the Two Id Festivals

510. 'Å'shah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah 浅said, 'Breaking the fast at the end of Ramadân is (determined) when people break their fast, and 'laul Ad-ḥā (the 'la' of sacrifice), is (determined) when people offer their sacrifices. '188 Related by at-Tirmidhi.

511. Abû 'Umair bin Anas ibn Mâlik (RAA) narrated on the authority of some of his uncles from among the Companions of the Prophet that some riders came and testified that they had seen the crescent (of the new moon) the previous night. Thereupon, the Messenger of Allâh ordered the people to break their fast, and to go out to their praying place (where they pray the 'ld prayer) the next morning (to perform the 'ld prayer in congregation).

Related by Ahmad and Abû Dawûd, and the wording is his, with a sound chain of narrators.

¹⁶⁵⁻ Some scholars said that this Hadith refers to the fact that one should start fasting and break his fast with the Muslim community, and do as they do. The same applies for the day of sacrifice.

¹⁶⁶ In the Hadlith there lies evidence that it is possible to pray the 'Id prayer on the second day of 'Id, if people did not know that the crescent had already been seen, except after the time of prayer has passed, as in this Hadlith. It is also evidence that if one misses the 'Id prayer for any reason, he may go out and pray it the following day.

Ibn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated, 'The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of the Prophet 3 and he prayed the eclipse prayer. He made a lengthy standing, similar to (the time that it takes to) recite Sûrah al-Bagarah (Sûrah no. 2). Then he made a long rukû', after which he stood and made another long recital, but shorter than the first one. Again he went into a long rukû', but for a shorter time than the first one. Following this, he prostrated (twice). Next he made another long standing with a long recital, but not as long as the first one. After which he made another long recital but it was not as long as the first one. Again, he made another lengthy rukû' but it was shorter than the previous one. Following this, he went into sujud (prostration, twice). By the time he finished, the sun had appeared, and he started to address the people.' Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhāri'.

In a narration by Muslim, 'When the sun eclipsed, he made 漢 eight bowings in two rak' ât (i.e. he performed rukâ' four times in each rak' ah), and prostrated four times (i.e. he made sujūd twice in each rak' ah).¹⁷⁰ $531.$ Imâm Muslim transmitted a similar narration on the authority of 'Alı' (RAA).

532. Muslim also transmitted the following on the authority of Jâbir (RAA), The Messenger of Allâh 🏂 performed six bowings and four prostrations (in two rak 'ât).'

533. Ubay bin Ka'b (RAA) narrated, "The Messenger of Allâh performed the eclipse prayer, and he made five bowings and two prostrations (in the first rak 'ah), and did the same in the second. Related by Abū Dawūd.

534. lbn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated, 'No wind has ever blown, except that the Prophet ﷺ would go down on his knees and say, "O Allâh, make it a mercy for us and do not make it as a punishment." Related by Ash-Shâñ 'I and At-Jabarán'i.

170- Some scholars are of the opinion that the celipse prayer is performed in this way.

Imâm Ash-Shâfi'î transmitted a similar narration, excluding the last part, on the authority of 'Alî (RAA).

Chapter XVI: The Istisqâ' Prayer (invoking Allâh for rain during drought)

٥٣٥ = غسن إذن عِتْماس - رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمَا - قَالَ: «عَرَجَ اللَّبِيُّ صَلَى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلْمَ مُتَوَاضِمًا ، مُتَبَلَّلًا ، مُتَخَشِّمًا ، مُتَرَسِّلًا ، مُتَصَرَّعًا ، فَعَلَى رَكْمَتَيْنِ ، كَمَا يُصلّى في العِيد ، لَمْ يَعْطُبْ خَطْبَتَكُمْ هَذِهِ». رَوَاهُ الْحَمْسَةُ ، وَصَحَّحَهُ الدِّهِذِيُّ ، وَأَبُو عَرَاتُهُ ، وَآنُ حَبَانَ .

536. Ibn 'Abbás (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah 養 went out (to make the Istisqâ' prayer) wearing old clothes, in a humble and submissive manner, walking slowly, invoking Allah (in humlity) and prayed two rak ât, as he prayed the 'Id prayer, but he did not give a similar Khutbah (like the one he delivers on the 'Id day)' Related by the five Imāms. At-Tirmidhī, Abū 'Awānah and Ibn Hibbāh gradedi tas Sadhļi.

537. 'Â'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The people complained to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about the lack of rain, so he gave orders for a pulpit to be set up for him in the place of prayer. He then appointed a day for the people to gather and he came out on that day when the sun had just appeared. The Messenger of Allah & sat. down on the pulpit, said Takbîr and praised Allâh. Then he said. "You have complained of drought in your areas, but you have been ordered by Allah to supplicate Him and He has promised that He would answer your prayers." Then he said: "All praise is for Allab, the Compassionate, the Merciful, the Only Owner of the Day of Judgment, There is no God but Allah Who does what He wishes. O Allah, there is no God except You! You are the Self-sufficient and we are the needy. Send down rain upon us and make it a source of strength for us and satisfaction.' He then raised his hands and kept raising them until the whiteness of his armpits could be seen. After that he turned his back to the people and turned his cloak around171, keeping his hands raised, then he faced the people, descended from the pulpit and prayed two rak ât. Allâh, the Almighty then sent a cloud which produced thunder and lightening, and by Allâh's permission, it rained." Related by Abû Dawûd, who said that its chain of narrators is good.

^{171.} In a narration by Al-Bukhāri, on the authority of 'Abdullâh lhn Zaid, The Prophet $\frac{g}$ turned his outer garments around, placing its left side on his right side and vice veras. Scholars say that the wisdom here is the fivo-voible omen of a change of state. It seems that the Prophet $\frac{g}{g}$ was optimistic that by turning round his cloak, the state of drought would turn into that of rain and prospering.

538. The story of turning the garment is mentioned in Sahih Al-Bukhāri on the authority of 'Abdullāh Ibn Zaid, who said, 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ turned towards the Qiblah and started invoking Allāh, then he prayed two rak 'at reciting the Qur'an aloud.'

539. Abū Ja'far al-Bāqir (RAA) narrated, 'and he turned his garment 獨 for the drought to turn away.' Related by Ad-Dāraq-utnī, and it was reported to be Hadīth Mursal (that in which the link between the Successor (Tābī ?) and the Prophet 獨, i.e. the companion is missing).

540. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'A man entered the mosque on Friday while the Prophet 鶯 was standing delivering the Khuṭbah. The man said, 'O Messenger of Allâh, our wealth has been destroyed and we no longer have any transport. 12 Supplicate Allâh for us to have rain. The Prophet % raised his hands and said, "dAllâh, give us rain. O Allâh, give us rain. O Allâh, give us rain." Anas said, By Allâh, at that time there were no clouds in the sky and there was no house or building between the mountain and us. From behind the mountain came a cloud that looked like a shield. By the time it reached the middle of the sky it started to pour with rain. By Allâh we did not see the sun for a week. On the following Friday, a man entered the mosque from that (same) door

¹⁷²⁻ In another narration 'livestock are dying', which may account for the lack of transport.

The Prophet '§ raised his hands and said, "O Allâh, around us and not upon us. O Allâh, make it upon the hills, small mountains, bottom of the valleys, and plantations." The rain stopped and we walked out in the sunshine.' Agreed upon.

541. Anas (RAA) narrated, Whenever drought threatened them, 'Umar Ibnul Khattáb used to ask Al-'Abbās in' Abdul Muttalib to invoke Allāh for rain. He used to say, 'O Allāh! We used to ask our Prophet £ to invoke You for rain, and You would bless us with rain, and now we ask his uncle to invoke You for rain. O Allāh! Bless us with rain.' And so it would rain. Related by Al-Bukhār!.

542. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'A shower of rain fell when we were with the Prophet ¾. He lifted up his clothes(uncovering part of his body to the rain), until the rain fell on him. We said, 'Messenger of Allâh, why did you do this?' Ile said, "Because it has just come from Allâh, the Exalted." Related by Muslim.

543. 'Â'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Whenever the Prophet '\(\) saw the rain, he used to say, "O All\(\) Make it beneficial." Agreed upon. 544. Sa'd (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh 養 would supplicate for Istisqa' saying, "O Allâh, let us be covered with thick clouds that have abundant and beneficial rain, that is accompanied by a strong sound of thunder (which is a sign of strong rain), frequently making light rain fall upon us and surrounding us with lightning. O Allâh, You are full of majesty, bounty and Honor." Related by Abū 'Awānah in his Satik.

545. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh § said, "Prophet Sulaimân ﷺ went out invoking Allâh for rain. He saw an ant lying on its back raising its legs up to the sky saying, 'O Allâh! 549. Umar (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh 耄 prohibited (men) from wearing silk, except for the size of two, three or four fingers. 173 Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

^{173.} It is only permissible for men to wear a garment embroidered with silk thread, the maximum size of such a design should not exceed the size of four fingers, or that the whole garment could include a piece of silk not exceeding that size.

555. 'Abdullah bin 'Amro (RAA) narrated, "The Messenger of Allah 焉 saw me wearing two garments dyed with saffron. Thereupon he said to me, "Has your mother ordered you to do so?"¹⁷⁷ Related by Muslim.

^{177.} This comment from the Prophet ¾ indicates that dying clothes with saffron is absolutely prohibited for men, and he mentioned the mother because it is usual for women to use it to decorate their clothing. This is also supported by the rest of the narration in Muslim, in which the Prophet ¾ commanded him to burn the two garments when 'Amro asked him if he should wash them.

556. Asmā' bint Abī Bakr (RAA) reported that she brought out the cloak of the Prophet ¾ and it had a brocade fringe on the collar, sleeves, and the front and back openings. Related by Abū Dawūd, and Muslim who added, ''Ā'īshah (RAA) had it until she died, then I took it. The Prophet ¾ used to wear it, and now we wash it and use it tor the washing for the sick, seeking a cure (by virtue of its blessing as it touched the body of the Prophet ¾). 624. Anas (RAA) narrated that Abû Bakr As-Siddig (RAA) wrote him this letter, "This is the obligatory Zakah. which the Messenger of Allah & made obligatory for every Muslim, and which Allâh, the Almighty had commanded him to observe. 'For each twenty-four camels, or less, their Zakah is to be paid as sheep; for every five camels, their Zakah is one sheep. When the amount of camels is between twenty -five to thirty- five, the due Zakâh is one she-camel 'bint makhâd' (a camel which is one year old and just starting the second year) or a male camel 'ibn labûn' (a young male camel which is two years old and already starting the third year). However, when the amount of camels reaches thirty-six, the due Zakah is a young she-camel bint laban' (a young female camel, which is two years old and already starting the third year). When they reach forty six to sixty camels, their due Zakâh is a she camel 'hiqqah' (which is three years old and starting the fourth). When they reach sixty-one to seventy-five, one 'Jaz'ah' (a four year old camel already starting its fifth year). When their number is between seventy-six to ninety camels, their due Zakâh is two young she camels 'bint labân'. When they are in the range between ninety-one to one hundred and twenty camels, the Zakâh is two young she camels 'hiqaah'. If they are over a hundred and twenty camels, on every forty camels, one 'bint labân' is due. And for every fifty camels (over one hundred and twenty) a young she-camel 'hiqaah' is due. And anyone, who has got only four camels, does not have to pay Zakâh unless he (the owner of the camels) wants to give something voluntarily.

Regarding the Zakh of grazing sheep, if they are between forty and one hundred and twenty, one sheep is due as Zakh. If they are between 120 and 200, two sheep are due. If they are between 200 and 300, three sheep are due. If they exceed three hundred sheep, then one sheep is due for every extra hundred grazing heads. If the grazing sheep are less than forty, (even if they are 39) then no Zakh is due on them, unless he (the owner of the camels) wants to give something voluntarily.

One should not combine (i.e. gather young animals together) or separate them for fear of paying $Zak\hbar h.^{168}$ When there is a mixture of cattle shared between two partners, and $Zak\hbar$ is paid jointly between them, then they have to calculate it equally among them (depending on the share of each). Neither an old or a defective animal nor a male goat (a ram used for breeding) may be taken as $Zak\hbar h$, unless the $Zak\hbar h$ collector wishes! to do so.

Concerning silver, the Zakâh paid is a quarter of a tenth for each 200 Dirhams. If the amount of silver is less than two hundred ^{138.} One way of doing this is when three people, each of them has forty sheep (i.e. one sheep) is due on each). So, when the Zakhh collector comes, they put them together, which comes to 120 sheep, and they the due Zakhh is only one sheep. Or if two partners have 201 sheep, which means that 3 sheep are due, then they divide them between them, for each to give only one sheep.

^{189.} The Zakêñ collector should not take this last type, (the breeding ram) as this will harm the owner, but he may take any of these three if he has no other choice, as the old and the defective animal is not to be taken as Zekêñ anyway. The same Arabic word used in the Health could be read as 'al-Musgaddiq', which is the owner or the one who pays Zakêñ. In this case the meaning would be 'the male-goat' may not be taken unless the owner permits it to be taken as Zokêñ, as it is from his best animals.

Dirhams (even if it is 190) then no Zakāh is to be paid for it, unless the owner wishes to do so.

If the number of camels reaches the number on which a jaz'ah (a four year old camel already starting its fifth year) is due as Zakâh, but he only has a 'hiqaqh' (a she camel which is three years old and starting the fourth), it should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available (to compensate for the difference) or twenty Dirhams. If on the other hand he has to offer a 'hiqaqh' as Zakâh, but he only has a jaz'ah, it is accepted from him, and the Zakâh collector will then pay him the difference, which is twenty Dirhams or two female sheep.' 625. Mu'âdh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated, 'When the Messenger of Allâh \(\frac{\pi}{\pi}\) sent him to Yemen, he commanded him to take a 'tabt'' (young bull) or 'tabt'ah' (young cow, which is one year old), as \(Zakâh\) for every 30 cows. And for every forty cows, a musinnah (two year old cow) is due. Every non-Muslim who attained the age of puberty should pay one Dînâr or the equivalent from the \(Mu'\) ô-firît clothes (made in a town in Yemen called \(Mu'\) ô-firît. So a man said to him, 'But you practice wigd! O Messenger of Allâh' The Prophet Allâh 🏂 replied, "Which one of you is like me? I am given food and drink during my sleep by Allâh." So when people refused to stop wigd!, the Prophet ¾ fasted day and night continuously along with them for a day and then another day and then they saw the crescent (of the new month of Shawwd!). 708. 'A'ishah and Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'Nobody was allowed to fast on the days of Tashriq except for those, who could not afford the Hadî (sacrifice).' Related by Al-Bukhârî.

709. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Do not single out Friday night (i.e. the night preceding Friday) among all the other nights for performing the night prayer. Also, do not single out Friday among other days for fasting, unless it coincides with the days one regularly fasts." Related by Muslim.

710. Abû Hurairah, narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ¾ said, "None of you should fast on Friday, unless he fasts together with the day before or the day after." Agreed upon.

711. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh $\mathbb{S}$ said, "When it is the middle of Sha'bân do not fast (until it is Ramadán)." Related by the five Imāms, but Imām Ahmad declared it to be a weak narration.

712. As-Samma' bint Busr (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh 蹇 said, "Do not fast on Saturday unless it is an obligatory fast. (Do not fast) even if you do not find anything (to eat) except for some grape peelings or the branch of a tree, in that case he should chew on it." Imám Al-Timidhi said that what is disliked here is for a person to exclusively choose Saturday as a day of fasting, as it is the day that the Jews honor. Anyway, most scholars said that it is disliked to fast on Saturday by itself due to the above mentioned Ahddith, except for Imám Málik, who said that it is permissible to fast on Saturday by itself, but the hadith of As-Sammâ' is evidence against his opinion.

^{207.} The Prophet $\frac{\pi}{2}$ is probably rebuking the one who fasts continuously by making this $du$'\text{a}' (eupplication) against him, meaning to stop him from doing so. Or it could probably mean that thie person will not be rewarded for this fast, as he is acting contrary to the $Sunnah$ of the Prophet $\frac{\pi}{2}$ who probiblied fasting on $\frac{1}{2}$ days and the other days mentioned above.

718. 'Å'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'With the start of the last ten days of Ramadan, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ used to tighten his waist belt (i.e. keep away from his wives) and used to stay up praying all night, and he would also wake his wives(to pray and recite Qur'an etc...)" Agreed upon.

719. 'Å'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh 幾 used to perform I'tikāf during the last ten days of Ramadān until he died. Then his wives used to perform I'tikāf after his death.' Agreed upon.

720. 'À'ishah (RAA) narrated, "Whenever the Messenger of Allâh 實 intended to make I'tikâf, he would pray the morning prayer and then he would enter the place of his I'tikâf (i.e. the place, which he had prepared for his I'tikâf inside the mosque)." Agreed upon.

721. 'Â'ishah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh 雲 used to put his head into (the window of my house) while he was in the mosque (performing $Itik\hat{a}f$) and I would comb his hair. When he was in $Itik\hat{a}f$ he would not enter the house except for some need." Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

722. 'Āishah (RAA) narrated, 'It is Sunnah for the one performing Itikaf not to visit the sick, attend a funeral, or touch his wife (with sexual desire), nor have sexual intercourse with her. He should also not go out (of the mosque) except for an extreme necessity, and no Itikaf is accepted without fasting, 200 or without being in a congregational mosque (where Friday prayer is performed).' Related by Abū Dawūd with an acceptable chain of narrators, but scholars say that the last part (starting: 'no Itikāf' is accepted..) is most probably the saying of 'Āishah (RAA), i.e. Hadith Mauqūf' (i.e. that which the companion does not connect to the Prophet $\mathbb{S}$ nand it is not the saying of the Prophet $\mathbb{S}$ himself.

723. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh 蹇 said, "The one who is performing I'ithāf does not have to fast unless he obliges himself to do so." Related by ad-Daraqutnī and al-Ḥākim, and most probably it is also the saying of Ibn 'Abbās. ie. Mawaāf and not of the sayings of the Prophet 尧.

725. Mu'âwiyah bin Abî Sufiân (RAA) narrated, "The Messenger of Allâh said regarding the night of al-Qadr, "It is the 27th night!" (of Ramadán)." Related by Abû Dawûd. But it is most probably the saying of Mu'âwiyah and not the Prophet £.

^{210.} The night of Qudr is the most virtuous night of the year, as Alfah says in the Qur'an: 'Verily! We have sent it in the night of al-Qadr. And what will make you know what the night of al-Qadr is? The night of Al-Qadr is better than a thousand months...' (Sûrah 97). Any action done on that night for example, rectifing the Qur'an, making dhike? Allah, and so on, is better than acting for one thousand months, which do not contain the night of Qadr. It is to be expected in the last ten days of Ramagán.

²¹¹ Scholars hold different opinions as to when the night of al-Qadr occurs. Some are of the opinion that it is the 21, some say the 25th and yet others say that it is the 25th. Some are of the opinion that it varies from year to year, but most esclosers believe that it is most probably the 27th of Ramagân due to the hadith related by Ahmad on the authority of 1bn Umer, that the Messenger of Allâh 25 said, "He who likes to seek that night should do so on the 27th."

727. Abû Sa'îd Al-Khudri (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "One should not undertake journeys except to three mosques: al-Masjid al-Ḥarām (in Mahkah), the Aqgā mosque, or this mosque (in Madhah)."²¹² Agreed upon.

^{212.} Scholars say that if one makes a vow to perform fitthff in one of these three mesques in particular, then be should fulfill his vow, due to this heafth, which indicates that these mesques have special preferred riches any other mesque, But if someone vowes to perform fithff in nonther mesque, But if someone two to perform fith another mesque, it is not obligatory on him to fulfill it and he may perform it in any place.

Agreed upon.

Alláh ﷺ, 'O Messenger of Alláh! Is Jihād incumbent upon women? He replied, "Yes. They have to take part in Jihād in which no fighting takes place, which is: Haji and 'Umrah." Related by Ahmad and Ibn Mājah and the wording is his. It is reported with a sound chain of narrators.

^{213.} It is the Hajj accepted by Allâh or the one, which is performed pure of any sins or evil actions.

The Prophet % dispatched a group, including Abû Qatâdah, and told them to follow the seashore until they meet him again. All of them except for Abû Qatâdah were in the state of Hrâne. On the way, they saw a herd of zebras. Abû Qatâdah cuspit a female zebra and they all ate from its meat, but they wondered it it was permissible for them to eat of it as they were in the state of Hrâne (because it is not permissible for the one in the atate of Hrâne the engage in hunting or eating land game). Then they carried the rest of the meat to the Prophet %, and told him the whole story. The Prophet % asked them, "Did any of you sak Abû Qatâdah to attack the herd...."

When we reached Dhul-[Huliafah, Asmā' bint 'Umais gave birth to Muḥammad Ibn Abī Bakr. She sent a message to the Prophet \(\mathbb{E}\) (asking him what she should do). He said, 'Take a bath, bandage your private parts and make the intention for \(Ibram.\)" The Prophet \(\mathbb{E}\) (then prayed in the mosque and then mounted \(al-Qasua'\) (his she-camel) and it stood erect with him on its back at al-Baidà' (the place where he started his \(Ibram.\)" He then started pronouncing the \(Talbiyah\), saying: "Labbaika \(All\) All\(All\) humma \(Iabbaik\) labbaika \(Iaka\) alaba \(Idh\) mand hamda \(acan n'\) mada \(Iaka\) alaba \(ull\) untul, \(Ia\) should \(alba\) rika lak (O Allâh! I hasten to You. You have no partner, I hasten to You. All praise and grace is Yours and all Sovereignty too; You have no partner). When we came with him to the House (of Allâh), he placed his hands on the Black Stone (Hajar al Aswad) and kissed it. He then started to make seven circuits (round the Ka bah). doing ramal (trotting) in three of them and walking (at his normal pace) four other circuits. Then going to the place of Ibrahim (Magâm Ibrâhîm), there he prayed two rah'ât. He then returned to the Black Stone (Hajar al Aswad) placed his hands on it and kissed it. Then he went out of the gate to Safa, and as he approached it, he recited: "Verily as-Safa and Marwah are among the signs appointed by Allah,"(2:158), adding,"I begin with what Allah began." He first mounted as-Safa until he saw the House, and facing the Qiblah he declared the Oneness of Allah and glorified Him and said: 'La ilaha illa-llah wahdahu la sharika lahu. lahul mulk wa lahul hamd, wa huwa 'ala kulli shai'in qadeer. la ilaha illa-llâhu wahdahu anjaza wa'dahu, wa nasara 'abdahu. wa hazamal ahzaba wahdah' (There is no God but Allâh, He is One, and has no partner. His is the dominion, and His is the praise and He has Power over all things. There is no God but Allâh alone, Who fulfilled His promise, helped His scrvant and defeated the confederates alone.") He said these words three times making supplications in between. He then descended and walked towards Marwah, and when his feet touched the bottom of the valley, he ran; and when he began to ascend, he walked (at his normal pace) until he reached Marwah. There he did as he had done at Safa.....

When it was the day of Tarmiyah (8th of Dhul-Rijjah) they went to Minâ and put on the Ihrâm for Hojj and the Messenger of Allâh 37 rode his mount, and there he led the Dhuhr (noon), Ag (afternoon), Maghrib (sunset), Ishâ and Fajr (dawn) prayers. He then waited a little until the sun had risen, and commanded that a tent be pitched at Namirah (close to Arafāt). The Messenger of Allâh 35, continued on until he came to 'Arafah and he found that the tent had been pitched for him at Namirah. There he got down until the sun had passed its meridian; he commanded that at-Qaşua' be brought and saddled for him, then he came to the bottom of the valley, and addressed the people with the well-known sermon Khutbat al-Wadâ' (the Farewell Sermon). Then the Adhân was pronounced and later on the Iaômah and the Prophet 38 led the $\underline{Dh}uhr$ (noon) prayer. Then another $Iq\hat{a}mah$ was pronounced and the Prophet $\frac{a}{2}$ led the A_{ST} (afternoon) prayer and he observed no other prayer in between the two.

The Messenger of Allah $\frac{26}{10}$ then mounted his camel and came to the place where he was to stay. He made his she-camel, $al.Qaswa^2$, turn towards the rocky side, with the pedestrian path lying in front of him. He faced the Qiblah, and stood there until the sun set, and the yellow light diminished somewhat, and the disc of the sun totally disappeared. He pulled the nose string of $al.Qaswa^2$ so forcefully that its head touched the saddle (in order to keep her under perfect control), and pointing with his right hand, advised the people to be moderate (in speed) saying: "O people! Calmness!" Whenever he passed over an elevated tract of land, he slightly loosened the nose-string of his camel until she climbed up. This is how he reached al.Muzdalijah. There he led the Maghrib (sunset) and Isha prayers with one Alhān and two Iaāmas, and did not pray any optional prayers in between them.

The Messenger of Allah # then lay down until dawn and then offered the Fair (dawn) prayer with an Adhan and an Iaamah when the morning light was clear. He again mounted al-Qaswa'. and when he came to Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram (The Sanctuary Landmark, which is a small mountain at al-Muzdalifah) he faced the Qiblah, and supplicated to Allâh, Glorified Him, and pronounced His Uniqueness and Oneness, and kept standing until the daylight was very clear. Then he set off quickly before the sun rose, until he came to the bottom of the valley of Muhassir where he urged her (al-Qaswa') a little. He followed the middle road, which comes out at the greatest Jamarah (one of the three stoning sites called Jamrat-ul 'Agabah', he came to Jamarah which is near the tree. At this he threw seven small pebbles, saying, 'Allahu Akbar' while throwing each of them in a manner in which small pebbles are thrown (holding them with his fingers) and this he did while at the bottom of the valley.

He then went to the place of sacrifice, and sacrificed sixty-three (camels) with his own hand (he brought 100 camels with him and he asked 'Ali to sacrifice the rest). The Messenger of Allah $\frac{2}{3}$ again rode and came to the House (of Allāh), where he performed Tawbf Al-Ifadah and offered the Dhuhr prayer at Makkah...' Muslim transmitted this hadith through a very long narration describing the full details of the Haij of the Prophet $\frac{2}{3}$.

²⁴²⁻ Sale involving risk or chance, i.e the sale of what is not present at the moment.

Chapter IV: Concession concerning 'Arâya (Lending something for use) and the sale of Trees and fruit

869. Zaid bin Thâbit (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh 蹇 permitted selling the dates of 'Arâya²⁶⁷ (the palm tree lent for use) if their dates are sold for measured amounts of dried dates.' Aereed uoon.

In the version of Muslim, 'He gave the license regarding the fruit of the ' $\hat{A}riya$ ' for its sale to the original owner.

870. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh 8 gave permission for the selling of the dates of 'Arâya, by estimating the amount of dates on the palm trees (unharvested) on the condition that their amount is less than five Awsuq²⁶⁰ or five Awsua' Acreed upon.

269- A Wasaq is equivalent to sixty să as (a cubic measure of varying magnitude). Five Awsuq is equivalent to 50 Egyptian kaylah (one Kaylah is a ^{286.} During times of droughts, the Arabs had the habit of lending some of their palm trees to those who had none so as to eat the fruit of those trees for a certain period of time. Semetimes the owner of the palm trees would be bothered by the frequent coming into his garden of the one the tree is lent to. So, the Prophet & gove them the permission (to the lender) to buy the dates while still unhorvested (even though this is prohibited otherwise)from the man he lont it, for an amount of weighed drived or fresh dates. So they would estimate the weight of the dates while still on the palm trees and buy them from the needy, for dried dates.

871. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah 養 prohibited the sale of fruit until it is ripe. He prohibited the seller and the buyer.' Agreed upon. In another version, 'When he was asked about what is meant by being ripe, he would say "Till they are safe from being affected by blight."

872. Anas bin Målik (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh prohibited selling fruit until they had bloomed. When he was asked about the sign of this he said, "Till they become red and yellow (i.e. fit for eating).' Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhār!

873. Anas bin Malik (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah grahibited selling grapes until they become black, and the sale of grain until they become hard (i.e. till they both ripen). Related by the five Imäme sexept for An-Nasäï. Ibn Hibbán and al-Hákim graded it as Eastib.

874. Jábir bin 'Abdulláh (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Alláh 焉 said, "If you sell your brother dates (or fruit), and they are stricken with Jâ'iḥah (Calamity),2"0 it is not permissible for you to take any money from him.2"1 Why should you take the wealth of your brother unjustly?" Related by Muslim.

In another version, 'The Messenger of Allâh 🗯 commanded that the price of the fruit stricken with a Calamity, is to be remitted.'

875. 'Abdullâh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh 撰 said, "If someone buys pollinated date palms, their fruit belong to the seller unless the buyer stipulates that they will be for himself (and the seller agrees)." Agreed upon.

^{270.} Jā'\(\hat{thah}\) or Calamity could be any of the discases or infestations which affect plants and may totally or partially destroy them. It could also be any unfortunate condition which was not caused by man, such as wind, snow, cold, lack of water etc.

^{271.} There is a difference of opinion among the scholars over the dition. Shaft and Aba Handh's are of the opinion that if the fruit was said before being ripe, while it was still on the tree, then the seller is not to take any money as it is prohibited to sell fruit before it is ripe (while on the tree), but if they are sold after becoming ripe, then the seller is not to repay the buyer any of the price. Ibn Handa' is of the opinion that the price of any damaged fruit is not to be claimed by the seller, and the buyer has the right to ask for a reduction in this case. Still many scholars believe that it is recommended as a moral obligation that the seller does not claim the full price, an compensation to his Muslim brother for his loss, and that is actually the implicit recommendation in this haddit.

This is supported by the Hadith, which rolates that the Prophet & said to the women on the Day of al-Ad-Ad-Ad-Nec Chartis", and the women straight away started to throw their jewelry to the Prophet & whether ear-rings, rings et can ABB alwas collecting them in his garment, and this is considered as giving of their property without the normission of the husband, and this is the ominion of the scholars.

But sometimes, one portion of the product would be destroyed while the other would be saved, whereas (on other occasions) this portion was saved and the other was destroyed and thus no rent was payable to the people (who let out the lands) but for this one (which was saved). 973. Ibn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh

Said, "Give the shares ordained (by Allâh) to their rightful heirs. Whatever is left after that goes to the nearest male heir (to the deceased)." Agreed upon.

974. Usamah bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "A Muslim is not to inherit a disbeliever and a disbeliever is not to inherit a Muslim." Agreed upon.

975. Ibn Mas'ûd (RAA) narrated concerning the inheritance of a daughter, a son's daughter (granddaughter) and a sister, surviving the deceased. The Prophet 💥 ordained that the daughter's share is one half, the son's daughter is one-sixth and whatever remains is the sister's." Related by Al-Bukhârf.

^{230.} The deceased in this case left two daughters and his father surviving him. The two daughters are entitled to 236 of the ostate. The remaining third will be given to the grandfather, but his prescribed shars is only one sixth and the other sixth will be given back to him as there are no other heirs. In this case the grandfather is considered to be 'Agaboh, which refers to the relatives of the deceased on his father's side. They are entitled to take the rest of the estate after the fixed (prescribed) shares are distributed, which applies to this case. The Messenger of Alliah 3⁸ wanted to teach the man that his prescribed share is only one sixth and not one third. That is why he gave him one sixth when he asked about his inheritance, and then called him again and told him that this other sixth is an extra amount to his share as it is given back to him for being 'Agabah in the absence of any other hoirs.

^{296.} Walâ' refers to the right of inheriting the property of a manumitted slave after his death. The one who has the right to inherit him is the one who manumitted him. In Jāhiiryah; before Islām, they used to sell this Walâ' or iye it as a right but Islām prohibited this.

^{207.} Most schulars are of the opinion that Wald's not part of the inhoritance of the deceased. For example if a man manumitted a glave, and he has two sons, and one of his sons had a child and then died. If the manumitted the series is not so he so not so he wald's' of the manumitted shade this inheritance goes to his son alone and is not to be shared between the son and the grandson as would be in the case of inheritance. This means that Wald's the right of the closest 'Agobah' of the deceased and not to be distributed as part of his inheritance.

^{298.} This haddth again assures the fact that Walô' is like the lineage of a person. The inheritance still goes to the one who paid the money to the slave and is not, to be sold or donated as soon as the slave dies, as the link to the manumitter still holds.

Chapter II: Types of Diyah (Blood money)

³³⁹⁻ The incident happened when a man traveled and left his wife with their child. The woman and her lover killed the child for feat that he may tell the the husband about it when he returned. Those involved were the woman, her lover, her servant and another man. When Umar knew about it from Yalâ bin Umaiyyah, his ruler in Yemen, he issued a decree that all of them must be killed as they killed him collectively.

1218. Abū Bakr bin Muḥammad bin 'Amro bin Ḥazm narrated on the authority of his grandfather (RA) that 'The Messenger of Allāh 'ૠ' who te to the people of Yemen (mentioning the hadith which included), 'Whoever kills a believer deliberately for no reason or a crime that he committed, he should be killed (in retaliation), unless the family of the murdered person agrees to take Diyah (blood money). The Diyah for a life is a hundred camels. Full blood money (i.e. total Diyah of 100 camels) is paid for the total cut off of each of the following: the nose, the eyes, the tongue, the lips, the penis, the testicles and the backbone. Por the cutting off of one leg, half a Diyah is paid (i.e. 50 camels). For a head injury a third of the Diver, in paid for 50 camels). For a head injury a third of the Diyah, is paid, for a stab which penetrates the body, one third of the Diyah, for a blow which breaks a bones or dislocates it, 15 camels. For each finger or toe, 10 camels are paid. For each tooth five camels are paid. For a wound which exposes a bone five camels are paid. A man is killed in Qisâş for killing a woman. For those who possess gold, they should pay the equivalent of the 100 camels which is fixed as one thousand Dinárs. Related by Abû Dawdd in his book "al. Marásil", an-Nasáï, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn al-Garūd, Ibn Hibbán and Aḥmad, but they disagreed regarding its authenticity.

Muhaivsah came and told them that 'Abdullâh bin Sahl had been killed and thrown into a well. He came to the Jews and said to them, 'I swear by Allah that you have killed him.' The Messenger of Allah a said to him. "Let an older one speak (take charge of this matter)," So Huwaivsah narrated what happened and then Muhaivsah spoke. Chapter I: The Prescribed Penalty (punishment) for Fornication

1244. Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid al-Juhanī (RAA) narrated that a Bedouin came to the Prophet 雲 and said, 'O Messenger of Allāhi I bessech you by Allāh, that you judge between us according to Allāhi's Laws.' The man's opponent who was wiser than him got up and said, 'Yes, judge between us according to Allāh's Law and kindly allow me (to speak).' The Prophet 秀 said, "Speak," He said, 'My son was a laborer working for that man (the Bedouin) and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and I was informed that my son deserved to be stoned to death (as punishment for this offence). I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a slave girl. But when I asked the knowledgeable people they told me that my son should receive a hundred lashes and be exiled for a year, and the man's wife should be stoned to death. The Messenger of Allâh $\frac{2}{3}$ replied, "By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, I shall judge between you according to the Law of Allâh (i.e. His Book). The slave girl and the sheep are to be returned to you. As for your son, he has to receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for a year. O Unais! Go to this man's wife, and if she confesses, then stone her to death." Agreed upon, and this is Muslim's version.

1245. 'Ubådah bin As-Sâmit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Receive from me (this revelation), receive from me (this revelation). Allah has ordained a way for those women²46 (unmarried females who committed adultery). When an unmarried man, commits adultery with an unmarried woman, they should receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for a year³49. If they (fornicate while they) were married, they shall receive hundred lashes and be stoned to death³50 Reported by Muslim.

^{348.} The Messenger of Allah % is referring to the verso (4:15) sarat an-Nisa', "...and if they testify, confine them (those women) to their houses until death, or (until) Allah ordains for them some other way.

^{349.} Imam Malik is of the opinion that a woman is not to be exiled as this will expose her to hardship, and she is not allowed to travel on her own anyway. She should only be flogged a hundred lashes, and the male is to be flogged and exiled. Other scholnrs say that if she is exiled she must be with a malgram.

^{350.} Most scholars are of the opinion that there is no need for flogging and that stoning is sufficient for the (married) adulterer and the adulteres. Their evidence is that the Prophet § did not combine flogging and stoning in the punishment of Mäiz and only stoned him to death. This is also evident in this badith as the Prophet § did not order Unais to flor berton.

We recited, memorized and comprehended it. The Messenger of Allāh ¾ accordingly (to what was in the verse) stoned to death (whoever committed adultery while being married), and we stoned after his death. But I am afraid that after a long time passes, someone may say, We do not find the Verses of stoning in Allāh's Book, 200 and thus they may go astray by abandoning an obligation that Allāh has sent down. 1313. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah saw a woman who was killed in one of his expeditions, so he disapproved the killing of women and children. Agreed upon.

- 383. It is not meant that women and children are killed intentionally, but if they were killed by accident then the Messenger of Allah 爰 means they are not to be blamed.
- 384- This man who followed the Prophet # was a brave and strong man, but the Messenger of Allah wanted him to embrace Islam first as he could see that the man had a strong desire to become a Muslim. In another version of the hadith it says that when he became a Muslim the Messenger of Allâh # gave him permission to fight with them. Some scholars say that this hadith is evidence that asking the assistance of a non-Mualim is not allowed in war, but other narrations prove that the Prophet sought the help of Safwan bin Umaiyah on the Day of Hunain when he was still a polytheist, and he also asked the assistance of some other polytheists at the same battle hoping to bring their hearts closer to Islâm, as he gave them a share of the war booty. That is why some scholars adopt the opinion that it was first prohibited to seek the help of polytheists during a war, but later on it was allowed (when the power of Islâm became stronger). Ash-Shafi i is of the opinion that if the polytheist has a good opinion concerning the tactics of war etc. it is allowed to seek his assistance, otherwise it is disliked.

Abû Aiyûb said that to answer those who disapproved of the action of those who attacked the Romans till they were amidst their army.'386 Related by the three Imāms. A version by An-Nasâ'i says, The man had a debt, so the Prophet sold the slave for eight hundred Dirhams and gave him the money and said. "Pay off your debt."

Related by Abû Dawûd with a good chain of narrators. The full hadith is related by Ahmad and the three lmâms. Al-Hākim graded it to be Sahih.

⁴⁴³⁻ This refers to al-Mukâtib who remains under the same rulings, which

44 This hadrith seems to be contradictory to the plotfit of 'Amov his Shu' aible

(1461) that a slave 'is still a slave as long as a Dirham of the agreed price remains to be paid. 'But most scholars are of the opinion that at Mukatib is still a slave regarding legal punishments and blood money as a long as he still owes his owner one Dirham. Some scholars still believe.

Chapter I: Good Manners (Adab)

ا 14.4 حــ عَنْ أَبِي هُرْتُوَةً - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْ وَسَلَّمَ : «حَقُّ النَّمْسُلِمِ عَلَى المُسلِّمِ سِنَّ : إِنَّا لَقِينَةً فَسَلَّمُ عَلَيْهُ ، وَإِذَا وَعَل وَإِذَا اسْتَنْصَحَكُ فَالصَنَّحُهُ ، وَإِذَا عَطَسَ فَحَيْدَ اللَّهُ فَشَكَنْهُ ، وَإِذَا شَرِّضَ فَعَلَاهُ ، وَإِذَا مَاتَ فَالثَمَنْهُ . رَاهُ مُسلَّمَةً .

1481. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ¾ said, "A Muslim has six duties towards other Muslims: When you meet him, you should salute him; when he invites you, accept his invitation; when he asks for your advice, give it to him; when he sneezes and praises Allâh, say 'May Allâh have mercy on you;' when he is ill, visit him; and when he dies follow his funeral." Related by Muslim.

1482. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh 鶯 said, "Look at those who are lower than you (financially) but do not look at those who are higher than you, lest you belittle the favors Allâh conferred upon you." Agreed upon.

١٤٨٣ ـــ وَعَـــنَّ التَّوْاسِ بْنِ سَمْعَانَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - فَالَ : سَأَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ النِّرِ وَالإِنْمِ ، فَقَالَ : «البِرُّ حُسُنُ الحَكُنِ ، وَالإِنْمُ مَا حَاكَ في صَدَّرِكَ ، وَتَكَرِفْتَ أَنْ يَطَلَّحَ عَلَيْهِ النَّهِسُ». أَحَرَجُهُ مُسْلَمٌ . 1483. An-Nawwas bin Sam'an (RAA) narrated, 'I asked the Messenger of Allah ¾ about virtue and sin and he replied, "The essence of virtue is (manifested in) good morals (Akhlaq) whereas sinful conduct is that which turns in your heart (making you feel uncomfortable) and you dislike that it would be disclosed to other people." Related by Muslim.

1484. Ibn Mas'ûd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh $\mathbb{Z}\text{ said,} "When three of you get together in company, two of you must not talk privately while isolating the third, so as not to make him feel sad (that he is left out) till you mingle with other people (i.e. you are joined by others)." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

١٤٨٦ — وَعَنْ النَّنِ عَنَّاسِ قَالَ : قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّه صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : «إِذَا أَكَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ طَمَانًا فَلاَ يُمْسَعُ يَنَدُ حَتَّى يَلْعَقْهَا أَوْ يُلْعَفْهَا». شُتَّقَنَّ عَلَيْه .

^{445.} A sin could be that action, which should a person commit it, he would be subjected to punishment according to Islâmic Shart'ah. A sin in this hadith refers to that action, which a person does not feel comfortable about doing, even though it is not explicitly prohibited by the Shart'ah, it is not definitely lawful or acceptable and one fears that Allah will punish him for doing it, even if people cannot see him. It is better in this case to avoid it.

1486. Ibn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ¾ said, "When one of you eats, he must not wipe his hand till he licks it, or gives it to someone else to lick (such as a wife, husband, etc)¹⁴⁸." Agreed upon.

1487. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah 養 said, "The young should salute the old, the one who is passing by should salute the one who is sitting, and the small group of people should salute the larger one." Agreed upon.

In a version by Muslim, "And the one who is riding should salute the one who is walking."

^{446.} The reason for this is explained in another hadith as the Messenger of Aliah % said, "You never know which portion of your food is blessed (has Barakah)." It is not meant to be obligatory as most scholars sav. rather it is just preferable or recommended for the intended good.

^{447.} Greeting with Salâm or responding to Salâm (the Muslim greeting), is a collective duty, thus if one greets or answers the greeting then the obligation or duty is met on behalf of the rest.

1489. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh 郷 said, "Do not initiate the saluting of Jews and Christians (when you meet them), and if you meet any of them on the road, force him to go to the narrowest part of the road (i.e. do not give way for them to pass, but keep going)." 448 Related by Muslim.
